

Hasbrouck Heights Chamber of Commerce
Wednesday, January 3, 2018
Hasbrouck Heights Public Library
8 am - 9:30 am

Present:

F. Armonaitis - TAPInto	R. Kistner- HH Council Liaison
S. Feuss – iDesign	D. Marcano - Kearny Bank
P. Gallo –Envision Video Services	T. Rachelski - PNC Wealth Management
M. Hui - HH Library	R. Vorisek - Heights Flower Shoppe

1. Introductions around the table. Guest visitor is Tom Rachelski. He is interested in reviving Lodi's Chamber of Commerce.
2. Holiday Parade (November 2017) was a success. Special thanks to Santa & Mrs. Claus (Mucci Family).
3. Holiday Fest. This is the first year no raffle contest was tied to event. Chamber made money through the publications.
4. Music on the Boulevard. Cost was $1,200 for 6 weeks from 10 am-8 pm. Chamber next year will ask for sponsors to help defray the cost.
5. 5th Annual Taste of Hasbrouck Heights. Plans will be underway. A subcommittee will be established to go over the details with HH Library Board.
6. Farmer's Market. New vendor has come on board. Paul's Pickles will be new addition.
7. Parking. Peter Gallo requested a meeting to be held. Ron Kistner will be asking Council to get an urban planner to review the situation.
8. Street Fair is Sunday, June 3rd. Contract yet to be signed. Event will take place from Raymond to Kipp Ave. Ideas were exchanged. It was suggested to have a Beer Garden.
9. Membership Dues Letter. Needs to be revamped. Steve Feuss suggested newly elected officers decide on composing new letter.
10. Boulevard Stroll. Takes place during the months of June, July, & August. Chamber invites classic cars to be displayed and concerts are held. Ron Kistner will work on getting stage from county.
11. 2018 Election of Chamber of Commerce Officers. The members voted in the following individuals:

President – Ray Vorisek
Vice President – Dawn Marcano
Secretary – Mimi Hui
Treasurer – Peter Gallo
12. Goal for 2018. To increase membership and Chamber sponsored events.